

DIGITAL DO'S & DON'TS:

How to Make the Most of Your Online Presence

- Is social media your best college admission tool OR your worst enemy?
- What are your most risky online activities?
- What is really at stake when you are online?

This workshop will provide strategies to make immediate and long-lasting improvements to be your best digital self

Date: Sunday, March 10, 2019 Time: 6 - 7 pm

Place: Mindset Tutoring, 18 Main Street Millburn, NJ

Who Should Attend? 9th - 12th grade students

Cost: $19/student includes the workshop and one month access to The DIG Program

Click here to reserve your teen's spot

Questions? Please email
Shari@thedigprogram.com or call 973-801-9575

"More than two-thirds of colleges (68 percent) say that it's "fair game" for them to visit applicants' social media profiles like Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter to help them decide who gets in."
Kaplan, Inc.

Presenter: Shari Stein

A career educator as a teacher and head librarian for the past 31 years, Shari is an expert in digital content management and social media usage. She has made presentations on subjects covered in the DIG Program to over 2000 students.